SCENE 1

PROBLEM

A small e-commerce startup team, led by a young female CEO, looks dejected and stressed in their modest, slightly cluttered office. They are surrounded by charts showing declining customer engagement and retention, with a computer screen displaying low performance metrics.

SCENE PROMPT SPEC:

Watercolor painting of a young female CEO and her small, diverse team looking worried and dejected in their dimly lit, slightly cluttered startup office. They are gathered around a computer screen displaying a stark, downward-trending graph of customer engagement. The scene emphasizes struggle and frustration. Soft, dramatic chiaroscuro lighting, casting long shadows, muted color palette dominated by blues and greys. Composition: A slightly high-angle wide shot, showing the team's collective despair, with the glowing screen as a central, unsettling focus. Delicate, visible brushstrokes, with a dreamy, melancholic quality.

SCENE 2

INCITING INCIDENT

The same startup team, now animated and collaborative, brainstorms ideas around a whiteboard in their office. They are conceptualizing an AI-powered recommendation engine, with diagrams and notes sketching out a solution to their problem.

SCENE PROMPT SPEC:

Watercolor painting of the same young female CEO and her diverse team in their startup office, now actively brainstorming around a whiteboard. The whiteboard is filled with diagrams and ideas related to 'AI,' 'Personalization,' and 'Recommendation Engine.' The atmosphere is focused and collaborative, with a sense of hope and innovation emerging. Soft, natural light filtering through a window, emphasizing fresh ideas and a 'lightbulb moment'. Composition: A dynamic medium shot, capturing the team's energetic interaction and the whiteboard as a vibrant focal point. Vibrant but soft yellows and greens, with delicate, expressive brushstrokes and a hopeful, dreamy quality.

TRANSFORMATION

Months later, the CEO and her team are beaming with confidence and success in their now thriving and organized startup office. They proudly observe a large monitor displaying impressive, upward-trending graphs representing soaring customer engagement, repeat purchases, and record-breaking revenue.

SCENE PROMPT SPEC:

Watercolor painting of the same young female CEO and her team, now beaming with pride and confidence, in their transformed, organized, and thriving startup office. They are gathered around a large, brightly lit monitor displaying impressive, upward-trending graphs representing soaring customer engagement, repeat purchases, and record-breaking revenue. Warm, radiant golden light floods the scene, symbolizing success and prosperity. Composition: An eye-level wide shot, showcasing the team's collective triumph and the positive data. Rich, optimistic color palette with splashes of bright reds and oranges, rendered with bold, fluid brushstrokes and a triumphant, dreamy glow.

SCENE 4

OUTCOME

The confident CEO, elegantly dressed, presents with conviction to a group of attentive and impressed investors in a modern, sophisticated boardroom. A signed funding document is subtly visible on the polished table, signifying their successful next round of funding.

SCENE PROMPT SPEC:

Watercolor painting of the same confident young female CEO, elegantly dressed, presenting with conviction to a group of attentive and impressed investors in a modern, sophisticated boardroom. A funding document with a clear signature is subtly visible on the polished table. The investors are diverse, listening intently. The scene exudes professionalism and validation. Crisp, clean natural light filtering through large windows, creating a sense of clarity and accomplishment. Composition: A medium shot from behind the investors, looking towards the CEO, highlighting her powerful presence and the positive reaction of the investors. Cool, professional blues and greys, with a touch of warm light on the CEO. Delicate, precise brushstrokes, maintaining a serene yet powerful dreamy quality.
